

Observer Showbiz

Every Week in the Melbourne Observer

Veritas: TV, Radio and Theatre Gossip Page 27
 Overnighters: All the midnight-dawn radio fun Page 28
 Community Theatre: Cheryl Threadgold's latest report Page 29
 Movies, DVDs: News from Jim Sherlock and Aaron Rourke Page 30
 Media Flash: Your behind-the-scenes guide to Aussie media Page 31

Melbourne
Observer
SECTION
3

PIRATES!

● Track Youth Theatre presents Pirates! on August 22 and 23 at 7.30pm and August 23 at 2.00pm at the Renaissance Theatre, 826 High St., East Kew. This is Track Youth Theatre's 29th production and is written and directed by Ed Bailey.

Pirates! is a fun musical set in Bundaberg in the 1850's and will be performed by 44 local youngsters aged 9 to 15. Some orphans have found a map to a treasure on a nearby island.

A crew of nasty pirates hears of this and tricks the kids into giving up the map. On the island the race is on to see who can decipher the map's clues and find the treasure. There will be lots of swash-buckling excitement, thrills and laughs for all the family.

Pictured from left are cast members Adrian Sala, Lucy Ymer, James Hardy and at back with the large moustache, Jonathon Sala.

Tickets will be available at the door for $12 adults and $8 concession.

Photo: Ed Bailey