

The Wow Factor

Wow! This week the news was interesting we read about Roman Polanski and his capers with a young one catching up with him, Michael Jackson was finally laid to rest and we find he was perfectly healthy before he died?

Mackenzie Phillips comes out and said she had been having an affair with her Papa, John Phillips for 10 years and then just to cap the week off, David Letterman drops a bomb shell about his extra curricular activities with members of his staff.

Well, one member at least. Often seen with him on air in skits the very cute Stephanie Burkitt (you could tell something special was happening with them the way they communicated on air) was named one of the staffers.

I have been a David Letterman fan for years. He is a master talk show host and I should know. I worked with two of the best, the wonderful Don Lane and the unashamedly David Letterman copycat and I say that in the nicest possible way, the incorrigible Steve Vizard.

I have to say David Letterman's 'confession' was pure class and delivered in classic Letterman style, he did what a lot of men would never be capable of. Ever.

Private lives

I am not taking any moral stance here but I know television and this story reads like a novel in itself and would probably have made a great screenplay.

Stephanie lived with the alleged black-mailer Robert 'Joe' Haldeman – and worked as an intern with David Letterman. It's an intoxicating environment working on shows like Letterman and people being the amoebas they are will join together.

But at the end of the day I liked what Jamie Lee Curtis said: "David Letterman makes this revelation about his personal life because he was being extorted. I understand he was staying ahead of the wave, and I commend him for it, but really, is this any of our business?"

Whole damn mess

And then came another bombshell, the separation of Chris Evert and Greg Norman.

I must say I laughed out loud. What is it with these dames? I love women and my sisterhood, don't get me wrong, but I didn't like Chris Evert.

I didn't like her "look at me I have Greg Norman as my trophy and I can make him a better golfer attitude" – it was not a nice story from the beginning and I can only image ex-wife Laura Andrassy dancing around her very very large lounge room on hearing the news.

From what I have been told she laughed and said it came as no surprise.

Laura has moved on and has a new man in her life and is saddened that she has no contact with former hubby's Greg's parents on the Gold Coast.

The things people do to each other in the name of love!

They say it was a clash of egos, who knows – the end result is it's sad for everyone all round.

Maybe Chrissie should look back at the TV interviews she did and she will find some answers to the whole mess.

FABE: WHAT WOMAN WANT

A lot has been written about What Women Want?

Movies have been made about it, books have been written about it, my bookshelves are full of books about how to make women happy, how to make men happy, how to cook the best casserole for your man, how to keep a man happy in five easy lessons

Really, at the end of the day after reading countless books I know its up to us as individuals to make ourselves happy by being true to ourselves.

I have also done lots of workshops on how to, what to and jump to and don't do this to – it's all simple really at the end of the day.

She's Fabe

I was inspired to hear of a wonderful woman named Fabe Keily.

Fabe resonated with me in the fact that she had done workshops herself and noticed that the workshops were run by men who knew nothing about what women wanted.

So Fabe devised What Women Want Wealth Creation and is running an exciting workshop in Melbourne on Saturday and Sunday October 24-25 at the Hilton on the Park Hotel.

And the cost is only $47. The weekend will empower you to create prosperity in all areas of your life!

Founder of What Women Want, Fabe Keily has invested all her own money to make these events affordable (she presents them all around Australia) because she wants YOU to reach your full potential and achieve the success that you deserve!

I urge you to go to www.WhatWomenWantWealthCreation.com or phone 07 5446 5335 or 0411 108 309 and sign up!

Nine great speakers will inspire and teach you over the weekend to tap into property, passion, motivation, share funds, relationships with the fabulous Cynthia Morton, health, share trading and the Internet.

Fabe Keily says "I have come to realise that creating wealth isn't just about finances, it's about creating wealth in ALL area of your life!

What Women Want is making a difference by paying it forward to the women of Australia!

The Pay It For-

You get to enjoy a fully catered weekend with international speakers on Fulfilling Your Purpose, Breaking Through Barriers, Creating Financial Freedom, Making the Most of your Relationships and Improving Your Health, all for the low price of only $47.

For creating this concept I am making Fabe Keily my person of the year!

Gal facts

While we are talking about What Women Want

Little Known Facts about Women – Did you know?

Women working from home are the fastest growing sector of the Australian economy.

Women own and operate 585,000 of the 1.9 million small businesses in Australia.

Women own close to 50 per cent of all home-based businesses. This is a 20 per cent increase in the last five years.

Women make or influence 80 per cent of all purchasing decisions that are made in the home.

Women owned businesses have less external debt and are more profitable than businesses owned by men.

What a week!

Diary this week is so full, so much happening.

Mick Gatto's long awaited book I, Mick Gatto written by Mick and Tom Noble was launched yesterday (Tues.) at Grossi Florentino.

One of the best book launches I have ever attended.

Guy Grossi does it so well and it was great to see a good turn up at the Victory Books launch hosted by Alan Kohler, the Chairman, and the book was launched by Underbelly's Simon Westaway.

Very stylish affair it was.

Saturday October 10: off to see Seraphim Trio with their Schubertiade at Melbourne Recital Centre at 6pm at the Elisabeth Murdoch Hall.

Am looking forward to seeing them perform Schubert's beloved Trout Quintet, recently voted Australia's favourite chamber music piece by listeners of ABC Classic FM.

Do come along, bookings can be made at Melbourne Recital Hall Booking Office, 6999 3333.

Saturday night am off to Palms at Crown to see Johnny Cash and Willie Nelson Tribute Show at 8pm.

Person of the Week

● Ann Peacock

Ann Peacock for no other reason than being Ann.

I have the utmost respect for Ann, she is a gal's gal and I thought I had talked so much about women in my column this week I just wanted to acknowledge Ann for being a great stalwart in Melbourne.

She is a good person and the work she does behind the scenes and being ever present at one of my favourite spots in town, Crown in her role their at General Manager, Public Relations makes Ann my person of the week.

Not my favourite

● Wayne Carey

So much going on in the news it's hard to keep up, but did smile when I saw that Australia's most famous alpha-male Wayne Carey was asked to turn around and go home when he arrived in LA on a visit.

For far too long the likes of Carey and fabulous footballer and goal kicker Brendan Favola have been rewarded with their bad behaviour.

Uts good to see the US Immigration Department say whoa, stop Mr Carey, you are not welcome here, and was sent home.

Also great to see Carlton Football Club take a stand with 'Fev' – these guys have to learn lessons and it appears they are going to be hard lessons for these two 'blokes'.
